Easter Is On the Horizon

As we move further into the season of Lent you can feel the anticipation. Easter. That time where the rebirth of Spring collides so beautifully with the celebrations of Jesus and his resurrection. Come join us as we walk through this holy season, remembering the events that led Christ to the cross and beyond. It's a great time to celebrate together!

Book, Bake & Craft Sale This Saturday!

Find a good book, shop for crafts and savour some good-ol' home baking!

From 9 a.m. to noon this Saturday you are invited to come visit Valois United Church's annual Book, Bake & Craft sale. It's a great way to support the church and pick up a few bargains at the same time!

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

Hot Cross Buns For Sale

The Sunday School fundraiser continues with a delicious selection of homemade hot cross buns and jams, available after church at coffee hour. Your purchases will help us to help Mercy Ships, a very worthwhile cause that has healed millions around the world with their medical services.

Greek Dinner a Huge Success

Thanks to the Men's Group for yet another great evening of food, wine and conversation.

If you missed out on this year's dinner affair, then remember to mark your calendar for next year's event, because, once again, the men delivered an outstanding evening of food, music and atmosphere.

Thanks to everyone who was involved in preparing, decorating, cooking, serving and cleaning—it was an evening that will not soon be forgotten!

Badminton Night at Valois United

Are you in the mood to hit something?

Well, hitting a shuttlecock is as good a target as any, and badminton is a relaxing, entertaining way to get your exercise. Families, couples, singles and teens are all welcome.

See? Lots of great reasons to come out Saturday evenings from 7 to 9 p.m., and play a round or two, or three. You can contact Gail Saloranta for more information at 514-697-7444.
