COVENANT SERVICE

This Sunday at 3 pm

It's time to formally welcome Rev. Scott Hunter on October 24 (this Sunday) at 3 p.m. Please add it to your calendar, join us at the ceremony and stay for the delicious refreshments and lively conversation after the service.

“When spider webs unite,
they can tie up a lion.”

Ethiopian proverb

Churches exist because of volunteers, and Valois United Church is blessed with a tireless group. But we've a few “lions to tie up”, and any help you can offer is most welcome. Even if your schedule is too unreliable to commit an hour here or there, there are all kinds of other ways to help out. You can call or email the church with your offer, and they will direct you:

November's Fair: Our biggest fundraiser of the year, and help is welcome in a variety of areas. If you can't volunteer time, here are a few other things you can do:

Welcome!

It was a beautiful, sunny September afternoon that greeted everyone who came to welcome Reverend Scott and his family. Thank you to the Valois United Church Men's Group for a great barbecue lunch!

Silent Auction: Do you know of a company willing to donate something new: sports equipment, special event tickets, gift certificates?

Bake Table: Can you bake a tray of cookies, squares, or bread?

Loonie Table: Do you have new items (unwrapped), roughly a dollar in value, that you could donate?
